

THE SCARLET PROFESSOR

SEX AND SURVEILLANCE IN AMERICA

Saturday, September 16

9 a.m.–5 p.m., Earle Recital Hall
Sage Hall, Smith College

In 1960, Smith College Professor of English Newton Arvin was arrested for felony possession of erotic photographs of male models. He was forced to retire in the wake of the scandal; two junior colleagues who had viewed the materials were dismissed. This symposium will address, from a variety of perspectives, the intertwining of sexual and political repressions, sexual shaming in American culture, and sexual identities on campus and in the community from the 1960s to the present.
